1.2 Nolan Principles

All TTE Board Directors shall follow the Nolan Principles. The Nolan Principles are the basis of the ethical standards for public office holders.

The Nolan Principles are:

1. Selflessness
2. Integrity
3. Objectivity
4. Accountability
5. Openness
6. Honesty
7. Leadership

2.0 Purpose

Table Tennis England requires its Directors to adhere to this Code of Conduct. The Board's effectiveness is critical to the success of the organisation, and the behaviour of individual Board members is a major factor in the effectiveness of the Board.

The Board leads by example, promoting and upholding values and standards of behaviour for the whole organisation. Individual Board member's behaviour may have a significant influence on the reputation of the organisation, the confidence and trust that stakeholders have in it, and the working relationships and morale within it.

Board members come from all walks of life and often from different cultural and ethnic backgrounds. The Code defines a common standard of behaviour, setting out the rules for how Board members are expected to behave both towards each other and when carrying out duties on behalf of the Board.

The rules of conduct set out in this Code are important for the following reasons:

- Having an agreed way of behaving towards each other and working together will help the Board to conduct its business efficiently and effectively, particularly when there are difficult issues to tackle.
- The Code of Conduct gives Board Members guidance on expected behaviour of a TTE Board Director.
- An agreed set of rules enables the Board to deal impartially and effectively with any incident of inappropriate behaviour by one of its members.
- A written Code of Conduct helps the Board to fulfil its commitment to conducting its business in an open and accountable way, with clear policies and procedures.

3.0 Table Tennis England Board Director Conduct and behaviour

All TTE Board Directors shall:

- Be prepared to commit the necessary amount of time and attention to fulfil the role.
- Attend meetings and other appointments on time, well prepared or give apologies.
