

Content:

Table Tennis England provides a series of tools for leagues, clubs, coaches, referees, players and parents from grassroots to elite Table Tennis to ensure a safe, positive environment in which to enjoy the game. These tools include agreed Codes of Conduct, which have been proven through research to be a significant deterrent to poor behaviour.

Detail:

Table Tennis England promotes fair play for everyone involved in our sport whether as a fun player in a Ping Pong Parlour or an England player. We expect everyone involved with table tennis to treat all those involved in the sport with respect and adhere to the following:

- Always do your best in every situation and set a positive example to others.
- Report any injustices or abuse you may witness.
- Applaud any good performances and efforts from all individuals and teams.
- Take responsibility for your actions and keep yourself safe.
- Be aware that bullying (verbal and physical) of fellow team/squad members or opponents and use of inappropriate language will not be tolerated under any circumstances this includes inappropriate use of social media and texting.
- Do not take banned substances.
- Always address officials or coaches at any competitions or training camps with respect and never question their judgement.
- Do not do or say anything which brings Table Tennis England, any of its members or the sport into disrepute.

Breaches of this code including all complaints and allegations will be acted upon according to the Table Tennis England Disciplinary Regulations and/or the Safeguarding Disciplinary Regulations.
