

Report from the Select Committee on the Constitution

The Select Committee has added significant value to the work of National Council since its formation. The Committee has contributed to each Council meeting on matters relating to the Constitution and from this National Councillors have taken rule amendments and motions to the Annual General Meeting, the majority of which have been accepted.

The Select Committee has added value of the National Council to the Association and provides very useful report on ongoing constitutional matters for National Council information. It is recommended that the Select Committee on the Constitution continues.

The following Select Committee members are willing to stand for re-election.

Alan Ransome – Chairman

Alex Murdoch – Deputy Chairman

Neil Le Milliere

Malcolm Allsop

Peter Charters has decided not to seek re-election as he is no longer National Councillor for Berkshire, although he is Deputy. Peter is more than happy with the work of the Select Committee has produced, but in the circumstances wishes to step aside.

Jos Kelly withdrew from the Committee due to his appointment to the Board and Richard Scruton wishes not to stand for re-election as he believes his work has been completed with regard to the 18-page review.
